

It is glad that Office Plus has invited the CEO of E-MOTION, Muti Jansuphachai to share his tips on start-up. E-MOTION is a leading company specializing in motion touched enabled video as well as new media advertising. It has gained various media coverage such as TVB. As an ex-tenant of Office Plus, and probably one of the most successful ones, E-MOTION has soon expanded into bigger scale in a year.

Expense control is the key to start-up company. E-MOTION shows a good example to reduce expense by renting Office Plus – a fully furnished office. It helps to save cost on renovation and one can enjoy the hassle-free move-in. Location is another crucial factor. With close proximity to public transport like MTR, Office Plus provides an excellent and convenient venue for staffs and clients.
